The Locrian Ensemble – 16th October

On Saturday 16th October The Locrian Ensemble will be in concert at the Museum of Army Flying at Middle Wallop.

The talented trio comprising Rita Manning (violin), Justin Pearson (cello) and Katherine Rockhill (piano - pictured) are top classical musicians whose "Candlelight Classics" series of concerts, performed in sumptuous period costumes, have proved enormously popular over the past years.

The group have such a busy and varied schedule that they are considered one of the most dynamic groups working in the field of classical music today. Much of their time is taken up with venues in London and so the Museum is very grateful that they have managed to find time to appear in Hampshire where Katherine Rockhill is locally very well known.

As well as playing with The Locrian, Katherine has performed before HRH The Prince of Wales and with Lesley Garratt and Katherine Jenkins. She has given recitals at the Purcell Room, The Wigmore Hall and the Queen Elizabeth Hall.

The Programme is Haydn's Piano Trio in G; Mozart's Piano Trio in Bb K502 & Brahms Piano Trio in C Op.87.

On 16th October doors open for the concert at 6.30pm, the concert begins at 7.30pm.

Tickets are £12.00 from The Museum of Army Flying.
