

Poppies Poem

Poppies are red
Poppies get planted
Poppies grow slanted
What are they for?

They are to remember War.

~~We~~ We should remember the 11th November

We have many soldiers that are ill.

Everything is so still

We need to make sure they didn't give their lives in vain
so others didn't feel pain

Remember the 11th of November

Every one is so still

May everybody be

Everybody
