

One day to remember,
The millions that were lost, they fought for their country as the planes flew across in November we can remember
The sacrifices they made,
The heroes up in heaven with their lives they paid.

A poem by Ava Wells scout aged 10

Remember me

Remember me with smiles

Not tears,

For all the joy through

The years,

Recall the closeness

That was ours,

A love as 'sweet'

As fragrant flowers

Do not dwell on thoughts

That cause you pain

After, all the guns fire

We will see each other

Again,

I am at peace

Trying to believe,

It was my time to shine

We get out and fight for

Our lives, our country,

Our pride

Face to face with hell Never knowing what's going to happen next now every year you hear remember those who fell

A poem by Joshua Wright Scout

Poppy's are red

Sky's are blue

Memories of the soldiers that loved you

There was a war for years and years

The years go by with loads of kabooms

To the future of Remembrance Day

The 11th month is the time to remember the people

Who died and fought for us all

A poem by Mackenzie Osbourne Scout aged 12

Why should we remember?

Remembrance what is it all for?

To remember all those who came before

To remember all those who fought

And to talk about what it taught

Those who have been before will always be remembered

We will all make sure

Wars are always being fought

We ought to think about what it was all for

Their lives will never have been taken in vain

As long as people remain to remember
